Dear Brel,

STAT Pat and I want both to thank you again and to apologize again. We were most appreciative of all your thoughtful advance arrangements for our visit with the Business Council last week. We are apologetic that we backed out at the last minute on the lovely dinner with you and the [redacted] Still, it was nice to see you and Sal on Friday, and as always it was most enjoyable to be back with the Council members and their wives.

We do hope to see you both at a future meeting. In the meantime, again many thanks from both of us.

Yours,
